Terex Attachment - Terex Forklifts takes great pleasure in producing quality equipment that helps upgrade their customers' performance while standing by their goal to provide a cost effective yet reliable product line. Through numerous divestures and acquisitions planned to expand the product offering, Terex has a short time ago expanded dramatically. They have improved their geographic coverage to make it possible for them to present quality standards and value for their broad consumer base.

Terex has remained a competitive player in the material handling and industrialized equipment sector. They are working towards building a franchise under the brand name Terex by incorporating all of their preceding brand names for many of the products used in conjunction business the brand Terex. Presently, Terex goods are principally marketed under the Terex name. A number of of the following historic brand names and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has had a constant growth sequence. In 1995 Terex acquired PPM Cranes, in 1996, then Terex divested Clark Materials Handling. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Terex promptly grew their mining and Crane operations with the acquisition of O&K mining, TerexLift, Gru Comedil, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Construction business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They quickly became a leader within the crushing and screening market by buying Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane companies were also added to Terex in 1999.

By purchasing Fermac, a specialized manufacturer of tractor loader backhoes, in the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment industry. Their Light Construction business continued to expand operations with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

In 2001, Terex expanded their Roadbuilding division business with the acquisitions of CMI, Bid-Well, Load King, Atlas and Jaques.

A couple of of the purchases that took place in 2002 made it easier for Terex to grow into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped boost Terex into the concrete mixing market, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane market. Buying German suppliers Fuchs and Schaeff placed Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment category. Genie became a primary maker of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed operations with the purchases of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which provided company-owned circulation for Terex Utilities.

A company called Tatra was purchased in 2003. This company produced heavy duty vehicles for military and off-road industrial purposes. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year allowed Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities distribution.

In the year 2004, Terex purchased a manufacturer of surface drilling equipment used in mining, construction and utility markets, called Reedrill. Also in the same year, Noble CE (formerly known as Terex Mexico) was purchased by Terex. They design high capacity surface mining vehicles and also fabricate several components for other Terex businesses.
